

Creating a Care Plan for Tongue Tie

Join Jessica Altemara, IBCLC and long time tongue tie specialist, as she shares the most up-to-date information on creating a care plan for tongue tie from assessment to assuagement. Gain skills through lecture, observation, and hands on learning to feel confident navigating this sometimes complex journey with families, authoritatively.

In this full day workshop you will learn:

- How to identify all types of tethered oral tissues (TOT)
 - To account for structural issues
- Details for implementing the three pillar team approach
 - How to choose revision providers
- Skills for communicating about TOT and treatment with parents
 - Active wound management options
 - Comfort tools for post revision
- To separate normal healing and possible complications
 - Tools for recovering suck
- Ideas for emotional recovery in baby and mom

September 12, 2015 10am-6pm

Vital Energy Wellness and Rehab Center

163 Charter Oak Rd., Lexington, SC 29072

Cost: $125 before Sept. 5, $150 after Sept. 5

This thorough and evolved workshop has been approved for 5 L-CERPs from IBLCE and always strives to meet participants' unique needs for feeling confident in supporting families to full resolution of this challenging issue.

Register at <http://tonguetiedoula.com/>

This workshop is appropriate for licensed and/or board certified individuals, such as IBCLC, SLP, MD, CNM, DDS, LMBT, DC, OT, DO, or COMs for whom making a clinical care plan is appropriate.